30-second Television Ad:
"If it were your mother..."

Julie Skidmore, RN, Huron Valley Sinai Hospital

I've seen a lot of negative changes the last few years since Tenet's taken over our hospital.

2013: Texas-based Tenet Healthcare buys DMC and Huron Valley-Sinai Hospital

Colleen Downes, RN, Huron Valley Sinai Hospital

It's very corporate, it's become all about the money, not so much about the patients.

More corporate

Julie:

I kind of wonder with these Tenet executives, if that were their mother lying in my ICU bed in critical condition...

On Screen:

If it were your mother...

You'd want what nurses want

Safe Staffing

Julie:

The reason we formed our union is because we care about safe staffing, and we care about our patients.
